La Mesa Chamber Manager Urges Lemon Grove-to-Mesa Merger

"Expansion of anything is cheaper than the establishment of it," the manager of the La Mesa Chamber of Commerce told the Lemon Grove Men's Club last Friday in urging that Lemon Grove consider annexing to La Mesa.

Ray Sherer, the chamber manager, said that it would cost "one and a half million dollars to set up a city government in Lemon Grove if the area were to incorporate."

He said that, on the other hand, annexation to La Mesa would mean a "simple increase in the average tax bill of $80 a year . . . the cost of a package of cigarets a day."

Sherer, pointing out that he was not an official spokesman for the City of La Mesa, said that if Lemon Gorve were to annex to the city:

The general county tax rate would remain unchanged.

The community would become liable for the payment of city property taxes. (He added later that the average tax bill in Lemon Grove is $312 a year now; annexation to San Diego would increase the bill to $369.34 and annexation to La Mesa would increase it to $361.35.)

—o—

Grant Burns, city planner for the City of La Mesa, is scheduled as guest speaker this Friday at the Lemon Grove Men's Club. He will discuss future plans for La Mesa.

—o—

The annexed community would be required to pay taxes to "retire" existing or authorized municipal bonds or pay off existing public improvements.

Fire insurance premiums would be reduced from an average of $23.05 per year to an average of $18.50.

Public utility rates might be reduced. Water service, now provided by the Helix Irrigation District, would continue as it is.

The general cost of municipal business license fees would increase.

In answer to questions from members and guests of the club, Sherer said all members of the La Mesa city council are elected "at large" and Lemon Grove would have as much a voice in choosing council members as another area would have;

The existing fire department probably would be absorbed by the present city government, and the present police force would be expanded to serve the new area;

Lemon Grove is as large in area and almost as large in population as La Mesa is, therefore this area would share about equally with the existing city in all improvements;

The La Mesa recreational facilities would be expanded immediately to include Lemon Grove;

The Lemon Grove area would be brought up to the La Mesa standards (streets, lighting, parking, sewers, etc.) "as speedily as the people would be willing to pay for the basic improvements."

Sherer added that annexation would require a "carefully prepared" master plan for zoning, "with the probability of a very beneficial long range result to the entire area."

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

Our often quiet-spoken Congressman, U.S. Representative James B. Utt, came up with a shocking proposition the other day. He suggested that we trade our capabilities with those of Russia on an even-Steven basis.

This would satisfy all the prophets of gloom and doom, he opined, and it would also provide a good measuring stick for many of those who question our country's strength in relation to the rest of the world.

In the trade, Congressman Utt said, both countries would have operational missiles. We, with the trade now consummated, would face a nuclear bomber force four times larger than the one we got, and we would be defenseless against the new Russian power. These bombers would be flying against us from hundreds of nearby bases, from all directions, all at once and we would have nothing comparable.

In new Russia there would be aircraft carriers and strong naval forces cruising a hundred miles off our coast, capable of launching nuclear bombers and missiles. Nuclear submarines with Polaris missiles would be cruising within easy range of every American city.

The trade would give Russia a world-wide system of radar warnings, a powerful all-weather fleet of jet interceptors, substantial ground-to-air missile bases, and a promising development of anti-missile missiles in exchange for nothing comparable.

By such a trade we would face a quarter of a million nuclear-armed enemy troops in Mexico and Canada, and they would be allied with powerful forces of other nations.

The change would shift our population so that it would be concentrated in one-half the country and 50 percent of the labor force would be engaged in agriculture.

If we traded places with Russia we would produce only 2/5 as much steel as before, 1/3 as much petroleum. Our electric motor production would drop to 1/20 and copper to 1/3.

We would have to destroy 14 of every 15 miles of paved highway, to keep our bargain, and destroy 19 of every 20 cars and trucks. We would tear out two of every three miles of railway tracks, destroy three of every five freight cars and sink eight out of nine of our merchant ships.

After the swap we'd find our housing reduced 80 percent. We'd lose 80 million TV sets (hooray) and we would keep only 10 percent of our telephones and radio sets. Our auto ownership would be the same as we as Americans had back in 1915.

Our only gain would be a rocket on the moon!

Measuring ourselves by this dramatic scale gives us our proper stature, we believe, and no red-blooded American would want to swap any part of us for any part of it. Not even our 1944 civil defense helmet.

Perry Mason television fans were distressed to learn earlier this week that their favorite hard luck "district attorney," Hamilton Berger, had been arrested on a narcotics and morals charge.

As serious as the charges are, his future is not too grim. He's got Perry Mason and Earle Stanley Gardner to defend him.

Perry's batting average is higher than Ted Williams' in his prime. Gardner, progenitor of all Perry Mason yarns and characters is a very fine attorney but has not been practicing his profession in courtrooms. He has been busy getting Mason

Equipment Stolen From Jr. High Science Room

Thievery and vandalism to the extent of $400 at the Lemon Grove junior high school during the past six weeks was reported to the Lemon Grove school board Monday night by Robert Sutton, junior high school principal.

He said that vandals had stolen $200 worth of materials and equipment from the science room. The thefts occurred on four consecutive Friday nights. He said that he and W. L. Bartholomew, maintenance foreman, had spent the night in the science room last Friday on a "stake out" but the vandals did not return.

Paul Reynolds, school business manager, said the school district subscribes to the patrol services offered by the Merchant's Division of the Lemon Grove chamber of comerce but the service, he thought, couldn't be effective in averting a recurrence of such incidents unless the service is expanded.

Taxpayers Vote For Probe Into Education, Play

Commend Librarian For Efficiency In Operation

The Lemon Grove Taxpayers Association this week commended the chief county librarian for efficiency, voted to investigate the use of public funds for adult education, and began to check into possibilities for establishing a low-tax-rate recreation district here.

Miss Frances Hahn, chief county librarian, was guest speaker at the taxpayers' meeting Monday night. She told of the operation of the library system in the county and discussed the money-saving advantages of quantity buying and selective buying of books and equipment.

Her remarks fell on receptive ears. At the conclusion of her outline of methods of saving money, someone quipped:

"When we incorporate in Lemon Grove, let's make this little lady our mayor."

Later, the taxpayers heard a report by Eugene R. McCoy on his preliminary investigation into the types of adult education classes offered in this area, the fees charged for attendance, and his reaction that "about 90 per cent of this money is pure waste."

While there was no apparent agreement on whether McCoy was right or wrong, the association voted to have him investigate further "so we will know the facts before we make up our minds."

The taxpayers also voted to have McCoy check into possibilities for setting up a recreation district in Lemon Grove with a "definite program in cooperation with the schools, and a definite tax rate so we will know what we are doing."

The association late last fall opposed the formation of a proposed recreation district, charging then that "nobody has any information on this thing and we are opposed to it until we know more about it."

Monday night, taxpayer members said that they are and always have been "interested in kids and interested in recreation."

Students to Enter 'Language Day'

Approximately 50 Mount Miguel high school students will participate in the San Diego State College third annual "Language Day" this Saturday.

Selected by teachers of foreign language classes, these Matadors will represent each year of the Spanish, German, Latin, and Russian curriculum.

This is Mt. Miguel's third year in competition with other schools in the county and city.

Boosters Club Gets $43,000 Bleacher Fund

Loan to be Paid Back to District From Gate Receipts

The Grossmont High School District board of trustees Monday night voted approval of a loan of $43,000 for the construction of bleachers at Mt. Miguel High School.

The loan, to be made to the Mt. Miguel Boosters Club, is to be used for the construction of bleachers to seat 5,000 people. It is to be provided from reserve funds with repayment to be made over a period of 15 years from 25 per cent of the gate receipts at athletic events held at the field.

Club members are to purchase materials from the loan and are to volunteer the necessary labor. Principal Mel Grant and Ed Schroder, co-chairman of the Boosters, estimated that the actual construction would take about 10 working days.

Grant said that it is hoped that the bleachers will be ready in time for the June graduation. But the actual "target date" is in time for next September's football season.

Miguel Students Name Officers

Mount Miguel students cast their votes for Associated Student Body officers last Thursday.

Candidates elected to office and introduced on Friday night at the Presidential Ball were: Dan Zastoupil, president; Linda Thompson, vice president; Alice Budzinski, secretary; Sheryll Lane, commissioner of finance; Sue Schwedler, commissioner of activities; Jerry Watmore, commissioner of publicity; Sue Gregory, commissioner of school services; Bob Steckman, commissioner of athletics; Mimi Johnson, commissioner of sales; Sherry Netzley, commissioner of concessions; and Marjorie Irvine, commissioner of records and alumni.

Lemon Grove Woman Named Swim Chairman

Mrs. Lawrence (Vini) Sozzani of Lemon Grove has been selected by the San Diego office of the American Red Cross as chairman of the San Diego County Backyard Swim Program, replacing Mrs. E. J. Lorentzen who has been chairman since the program's inception in 1957.

Mrs. Sozzani has lived in Lemon Grove for the past 10 years. She has held various offices in the Lemon Grove Junior Women's Club, has been a member of the Business Women's League, served as Red Cross Area Chairman for the Backyard Swim Program last year and is purser of the Water Safety Association. The Sozzanis have four children, three of whom attend St. John of the Cross School.

Mrs. Sozzani learned to swim through the backyard swim program. When the program started in 1957 she could only paddle across the pool. She became interested in improving her swimming skills and launched an intensive campaign of swimming instruction so that she in turn could pass on to the children of the area the benefits of her months of training. The favorite hobby of the Sozzanis is skin diving and each of the Sozzani children, including pre-school Robbie, go along with mom and dad as they enjoy the water equally well.

There will be a Red Cross Backyard Swim Area meeting on March 25 at 7.30 p.m. in San Miguel Elementary School auditorium in Lemon Grove. All interested persons from the Spring Valley, La Mesa and Lemon Grove area are invited to attend.

Mrs. Lawrence Sozzani, San Diego County backyard swim chairman, will preside. Those desiring to be instructors in this program may register at this meeting for the Red Cross instructors course which will be given starting April 19.

$34,000 Donation Seen by Survey For Swim Pool

"If the results of a preliminary survey hold out for all of Lemon Grove, we could raise more than $34,000 by donations," Mrs. V. C. Seal told the Lemon Grove Swimming Pool Assn. this week.

Mrs. Seal presented a report on a 450-house survey made in the San Altos area. In the area, she said, a crew passed out an information sheet telling of the swimming pool association's need for funds and asked the families to indicate if they would be willing to donate from $14 to $20 to help build a pool.

She said that 179 families answered that they would consider giving money. The indicated amounts add up to $34,000 for all of Lemon Grove if the same percentage holds, she said.

This might be possible, she added, "because many of the people in San Altos are new in the area. The percentage of 'yesses' in the older part of Lemon Grove might be even higher."

The association is to conduct other area surveys soon, Mrs. Seal said, before any decision is made as to just what course is to be taken. The association has indicated that it may abandon its low-profit annual fund-raising carnival.

Voters to Weigh Tax Increase

Voters in the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district on June 7 will be asked to approve a $2.48 maximum operating tax rate, it was decided at Monday night's meeting of the board of trustees.

Dr. Cyril Padfield, chairman of the board, said the measure will be for an undetermined period.

The district on June 7 also will seek approval of a $6½ million loan authorization for its building program.

Broadway Project Funds Readied To Get Property

Bids to be Opened By Supervisors On April 4

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Condemnation actions for rights of way for improving Broadway, Lemon Grove, already involve $161,500.

This was revealed Tuesday when the County Board of Supervisors was asked to approve a warrant of this amount for deposit with the courts to guarantee payments for land being condemned.

The Board's action was taken at the request of David K. Speer, road commissioner and county surveyor. He said the deposit of the sum was necessary to obtain immediate possession of the land being condemned.

The county this week advertised for bids on the improving of Broadway between College and Olive avenues. The project is just slightly short of one mile long.

Bids are to be opened April 4.

The project will widen Broadway to four lanes with a center island and will install stop lights at Massachusetts, West and Buena Vista and a "warning beacon" light at Olive, where the project will drop abruptly to its present two-lane width.

Construction is expected to begin within six weeks of the opening of bids.

Archie Moore To Talk Here

Boxing Champion Archie Moore will be guest speaker Thursday night at the annual Father and Son Banquet of the Lemon Grove Lion's Club.

Jesse Lee, program chairman, said that Moore will be accompanied by his trainer and one of the recently-chosen Golden Gloves champions.

The dinner meet is set for 7 p.m. at Michael's Cafe. All Lions and their invited male guests are welcome, Lee said.

Scots to Skirl Bagpipes in Highland Fling

The Scots will take over with a skirl of bagpipes this Friday night—just one day after the Irishers celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

The Helix high school Bagpipe Band is to sponsor a Highland Holiday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. The thrifty Scots are to defray expenses by charging 50 cents a person or 75 cents a couple.

On the evening's program are bagpipe music by the band, Highland dancing and a film on Scotland. The high school pep band and choir have been induced by the canny Scots to appear as guests and help produce some Scottish songs.

After the program, there'll be some teaching of Scottish country dancing.

LEMON GROVE STORES OPEN 'TIL 9 FRIDAYS

TEMPORARY THRONE

Once Over Lightly

by Don Wilson

I stepped into the house at lunch time and I smelled corned beef and cabbage.

"What's on the stove?" I asked, needlessly.

"Corned beef and cabbage," Paula said.

"Why is it," I asked, "that people nowadays seem to feel that cooking odors are undesirable? Why do they spray those deodorants around?"

"I don't know," Paula said.

And we spent half the lunch hour remembering smells.

I remembered coming home from school when I was a child knowing a block away that mother had been baking cinnamon rolls. As a matter of fact, all the other kids in the neighborhood knew it too. About a dozen of them would be sitting on the back porch by the time I got home, and each of them would have a hot cinnamon roll.

We Wilsons would do well to get one dozen out of the six dozen that mother would make.

And Paula remembered the unmistakable smell of chicken frying on the kitchen stove. When Paula was young, she recalls, the fortunes of her family used to rise and fall rather sharply—and fried chicken not only was delectable but it also was a sign of at least temporary prosperity.

As we sat there remembering, Paula reminded me of the sweet smell of night-blooming jasmine. And I drifted off into a reverie.

I remembered the smell of newly-cut alfalfa when I was a boy in Kansas, and later when I was farm editor of another newspaper and drove frequently into the farming country.

And the smell of lilacs from the bush in the back yard.

The ocean has its own smell too, and just remembering it brings back memories of solitary moments when I used to walk along the shore in the days when there were empty stretches of beach to walk on. And I remember the docks in such places as Monterey and Eureka where the fishing boats used to go out early in the morning and come back as the sun was setting out across the sea.

And the seagulls would scream and whirl. Twinkle-legged sandpipers come to mind too when I think of the smell of the sea.

The smell of an automobile repair shop reminds me of my dad. He was a mechanic and I have spent many hours watching him work on cars, and later I helped him. There was the indefinable combination of exhaust fumes and oil and cleaning solvent and soap and paint that made up the smell of the garage.

And there is a somewhat similar smell to big construction projects, where giant machines snuffle and roar as they dig up the ground or pour concrete or spread asphalt. If I were blind I could tell what was going on on a construction project just by the sound and the smell.

And there is the smell of a big aircraft hangar with its always damp feeling and its coolness, along with the smell of high-test aviation gasoline and exhaust fumes.

But most of all, there is the smell of a house. Some houses have no discernible odor at all—and their owners have no discernible character at all.

I have discovered that people with definite characteristics also have houses with definite smells. There is always the mingling of cigaret or pipe smoke, the faint touch of the odor of coffee and of whatever is destined to be served for dinner. There is sometimes the lingering odor of oil paints from a picture being painted, or the indefinable smell of freshly-sawn wood from the woodshop.

And around these houses is the smell of freshly-turned earth in the flower beds, the smell of freshly-cut branches and twigs.

But modern science is foisting spray-can deodorants off on the new generation in the false belief that the household odors should be banished.

And modern science, not always consistent, has produced smellavision movies to re-create smells that it otherwise is trying to kill.

And I see by the office clock that it is lunch time.

I wonder what one of Paula's bits of culinary artistry is tantalizing pedestrians in the vicinity of the Wilson house?

I think I'll go see.

Income Tax Fax

A public service of the Society of California Accountants

Do you receive meals and lodging from your employer?

Chances are good they are income tax free to you, as the code says "There shall be excluded from gross income of an employe the value of any meals or lodging furnished to him be his employer for the convenience of the employer, but only if—

(1) in the case of meals, the meals are furnished on the business premises of the employer, or

(2) in the case of lodging, the employe is required to accept such lodging on the business premises of his employer as a condition of his employment.

This seems to clearly indicate that if you receive meals on the business premises of your employer that they are not taxable income to you.

This also seems to clearly indicate that the fair rental value of lodgings furnished to you are not taxable income to you if you are required by your employer to actually live at the site of your job. For instance, an apartment house manager's apartment, etc.

The Social Security tax does not follow this rule.

This applies only to meals and lodging furnished in kind. Any cash allowances will have to be included in income to the extent that they are taxable income to you.

Editor:

It was interesting to note in your editorial this week your concern regarding the possible unification of school districts, and your recommendation—"Ask your PTA for guidance and support the position it takes in this vital matter."

It is especially interesting since only a week or two ago you chided the PTA's request for publicity concerning their activities. As you always tell your advertisers, "Advertising pays" — (that is what you always say, isn't it?)

We, who understand the real purpose of the PTA and know of its many worthwhile accomplishments, are always anxious to reach more and more people and make them aware of the things we already understand, and you'll have to admit, we reach different people by different means. To reach some we must make our meetings sound interesting enough that they will attend — if they attend a few and find out the real purpose and aims for which the PTA does and has always worked, they usually become staunch supporters.

This is where "publicity" enters the picture. (No one has ever told me this, but I assume that human nature being what it is, and the incentive for competition being present in all of us, admittedly or not, the purpose of the PTA Publicity Book you mention is to encourage the person responsible to do as good or a better job than the next one—because in the end publicity benefits the organization.)

Admittedly, you respect the organization's non-political, non-partisan, non-sectarian policy to which it has always adhered and because of which it has always earned the respect it has been given by those who realize this.

The sole concern, before the organization takes a stand is children, ALL CHILDREN. If anyone would like to read the impressive list of laws the PTA has either sponsored or backed until they became laws, they should read a book called, "Where Children Come First" by Harry and Bonara Overstreet (and this was written ten years ago; there are more since then).

When the PTA takes a stand on this or any issue, it will be because CHILDREN COME FIRST, and this is the only organization of this size in existence today that can claim this as their sole and only concern.

I am not writing to you in any official capacity whatever other than one of the nearly 12 million members of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, who are fortunate to live in a country where "In Unity There Is Strength."

Mrs. G. R. (Mary) Ribley, Jr.

Dear Editor:

I am reluctant to disagree with such omniscient figures as newspaper editors, especially when they are my friends, but after reading your recent editorial comment in favor of fluorodation of drinking water I feel that it is my public duty to disagree with you about this subject.

It is my belief that you may not have had access to all the facts in regard to this problem so I would like to call your attention to some of the less desirable effects of fluorodation.

It is true, as you have mentioned, that fluorodation of water does help prevent dental caries in children but it would be far easier and safer to accomplish the same results by means of a well-balanced diet containing a lesser amount of the soft foods and concentrated sugars that so many of our children consume today.

It has been shown that continued use of fluorides over a long period of time will produce mottling, pitting and discoloration of teeth. Can you imagine what may happen to internal organs which are not so easily visualized?

Animal experimentation has proven that fluorine compounds given in minute doses over a long period of time are carcinogenic (cancer causing). There are far too many such factors found in our foods and medicines today without adding another to the list.

Now that you have all the facts, think it over! Would you care to expose yourself and your family to these added dangers? Also, bear in mind, that the people of those countries who have excellent teeth have accomplished this, not by fluorodation of water, but only by means of a good solid diet.

I have no criticism to make of those who favor fluorodation of water because I believe that they are usually well intentioned individuals who, unfortunately, are not fully aware of the dangers of fluorodation.

Sincerely,
Stanley Yanchul, D.C.

Anytime between now and the first of June you can put in a dichondra lawn.

The preparation of the soil before planting a lawn is the most important operation of all. And besides working into the soil some bone meal (about 50 pounds per 1,000 square feet), I always recommend using agricultural or soil sulphur, 25 pounds to that 1,000 square feet.

To me, impregnating agricultural sulphur into the soil prevents more Brown Patch than you can ever possibly prevent by later spraying your lawn. It's not a bad idea to give that soil a little iron for immediate use . . . about 10 pounds to the 1,000 square feet.

Rake these materials until they're thoroughly mixed with the soil, and until the soil itself is a very fine texture. Then you are ready to do re-seeding and planting.

I have a very fine bulletin on seeding, planting, watering, mowing and general care of dichondra lawns. And it is free on request.

More Questions Answered On Functions, Needs Of Coordinating Council

In a previous issue of this newspaper, the Lemon Grove Coordinating Council supplied answers to questions concerning the make-up of the organization.

Here more questions are answered by the public relations committee. The committee is headed by Mrs. James Martin. President of the Council is Rev. E. Walter Smith of the L.G. Congregational church. The group holds monthly meetings on the third Monday of the month at the junior high school cafetorium.

Q. Does this community need a coordinating council?

A. As a community grows it needs people who will think, act, play and work together, if it is to prosper. A coordinating council provides the avenues for meeting more than the mere minimum needs. Any community suffers a chronic illness when its people are isolated from each other. It grows old in body when its buildings and business deteriorate and when its people no longer care. It may contaminate other areas if groups of its people are constantly at strife with each other, or are frustrated or overwhelmed by problems.

Q. Who may belong to the L.G. Coordinating Council?

A. Membership is open to interested citizens and representative citizens from governmental services, private social agencies, civic and religious organizations, and youth groups.

At present, more than 50 civic, religious and youth groups are supported by members of this community. These include 13 churches, the pastors' association, 10 PTAs, St. John's Parents' Guild, Teachers' Association, Youth Center, Swimming Pool Association, Little League, Girl Scouts, and Campfire Girls.

Also: Boy Scouts, Masonic lodge, Eastern Star, Job's Daughters, University Women, chamber of commerce and Taxpayers' Association.

Also: six men's clubs with auxiliary units such as Rotary, Kiwanis, Optimists, Lions, VFW and Fire Relief Association.

There are the Exchange, Men's, Lemon Grove Women's, LG Women's juniors and the Vogue Section of the Women's Club.

Also: Business Women's League, Sorotimist and League of Women Voters.

Also: public agencies serving the area for the County of San Diego, and the fire, water, and school districts.

Private social agencies include: Community Welfare Council, United Fund and Community Chest, Red Cross, YMCA, YWCA, and others.

Edgemoor Auxiliary To Welcome Members

There will be an indoctrination of prospective new members of Edgemoor Geriatric hospital auxiliary from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. this Thursday in the chapel of the hospital.

The ceremony itself will be held in the chapel with talks by Allen Flaven, administrator, and directors of various departments. This will be followed by luncheon in the dining room and the new members then will be taken on a tour of the grounds and various buildings.

Fund-Raising Dinner Here

A roast beef dinner with all the trimmings will help send Wesley Buttermore, local plumber and member of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church, to the Belgian Congo next summer. The dinner scheduled for Saturday, March 26, from 5 to 8 p.m. $1,500 is needed to transport Mr. Buttermore to Africa and back.

Five laymen and one minister from the Methodist churches of Southern California and Arizona will leave for the Belgian Congo on June 19 and will spend two months at Kapanga finishing a bush station hospital and building a residence for hospital staff. All of the men are donating their time and labor and each must provide for his own transportation expenses, according to Rev. Don Cooke, minister of the Methodist Church here.

Local citizens interested in such "person-to-person" goodwill efforts are invited to assist in the project by attending the fund raising dinner at the Lemon Grove Methodist Church. The church is located at Golden Avenue and Washington Street. Donation tickets for the dinner are: $1.75 for adults; .75 for children under twelve. Tickets may be reserved by calling the church office, HO 6-8065.

This is an unusual opportunity for Gardner to prove, once and for all, that his plots are functional.

The charge: "District Attorney" Berger, one of eight persons, three of them women, were nude in a single bedroom of an apartment. There was evidence that marijuana and benzadrine inhalants had been used by the occupants.

The defense: "I just stopped by for a drink."

Let's see Mr. Gardner spring his district attorney from that charge. P. Mason has done it with less to go on.

There has been considerable controversy concerning what name should be given to the Lemon Grove Freeway, commonly called state sign route 94 by the uninitiate.

The state highway commission, whose policy on freeway naming doesn't always jibe with ours, is nowhere near ready to hang any sort of a name on it as of now.

The City of El Cajon only last week was turned down by the Commission on their request to have state sign route 80 named Cajon freeway. The commission felt that the name Cajon freeway does not sufficiently identify route 80 in that it will eventually connect San Diego with Yuma.

By such measurements, the name given to the Cajon freeway must be given to the Lemon Grove freeway, too. According to present plans, the Lemon Grove freeway will be built to full freeway standards to Jamacha, but will remain a state highway from there to Boulevard where it joins with the Cajon freeway, continuing on to Yuma. If the Commission is to call each by its major designation, we'll have two Yuma freeways.

For this and other reasons, as long as the freeway passes through Lemon Grove we'll call it the Lemon Grove freeway.

The seriousness of freeway naming shouldn't be underestimated, however.

James Gutherie, editor and president of the San Bernardino Daily Sun, who is also the chairman of the State Highway Commission, informed me that the formal naming of the Lemon Grove freeway is still a long way off. The rule is, he says, that a freeway must be actually completed before a name could be attached to it. The reason is that travelers complain that freeway designation gives improper assurance of safeguards.

When the name is finally chosen, it is chosen with the name of the principal community it serves in mind, provided it gives directional information.

Since the Lemon Grove freeway will end at Jamacha (another sign route will be used to connect it with the Cajon freeway east of El Cajon) the highway commission would be hard put to come up with a more suitable name than the one we have given it.

In addition, school secretaries at several locations will be qualified as deputy registrars. Further information may be obtained by calling the La Mesa-Spring Valley School Dist. office, HO 9-6171.

Mrs. Betty Seymour Robinson, deputy registrar of voters, living at 10096 Casa de Oro Blvd. (HO 6-1889), announces her schedule of registering of voters, through April 14.

"If you are a young voter," Mrs. Robinson says, "and you will be 21 before June 7, you can be registered for the closing date of registration, April 14."

Mrs. Charlotta Phillips, deputy registrar of voters, of 3546 Helix St., Spring Valley (HO 6-4209), announces that she will be at the following places to register voters, until April 14.

Extension of Road Okayed by Planners

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Extension of a Spring Valley road and its inclusion into the county system of roads was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission.

The road to be extended is Sinclair lane, and the commission's approval was based on the contribution by local land owners of a right of way acceptable to the road department. In addition, the road has to be improved to county standards and drainage facilities installed, before the county will take it over.

The applicant for the action was Owen C. Geer.

12-Year-Old Boy Held In 8 Burglaries

Apprehension of a 12-year-old Lemon Grove youngster by the sheriff's department cleared at least eight cases of house breaking and theft in the Lemon Grove area this week.

Juvenile Officer A. B. Wood of the sheriff's department said the boy had admitted ransacking six houses and St. John of the Cross Catholic Church twice in a three weeks crime spree. The houses are generally in the Washington, Golden, Skyline area in southeast Lemon Grove.

Deputy Wood said the boy would first attempt to sell "all-occasion" greeting cards to householders. If no one answered the door, he would enter through a screen or window. Money, jewelry, cutlery and miscellaneous items comprised the loot which Deputy Wood said was valued at approximately $250.

The items are being returned to rightful owners this week, Wood said.

sponsored by the Red Cross and ninth District PTA and is endorsed by the board of education. It is a volunteer program with pool owners donating their pools and instructors donating their time. Pool owners are assured thoroughly adequate liability coverage when their pool is in use by the Red Cross for this program. The instructors are trained by the Red Cross and volunteer their time. Others included in the management of the program are PTA parents who volunteer their time as organizers and parent supervisors at poolside.

When the program started in 1957 ninety-five Red Cross trained instructors volunteered their services and 70 pools were donated. That year, 2,374 children enrolled, of which 803 were certified and received their beginning cards from Red Cross along with a pin signifying they were ready for intermediate swimming instruction.

Bill Hulbert, Spring Valley, (kneeling) and Carl Lutjens, telephone company PBX installers, review final steps in the installation of new phone equipment at Grossmont Hospital.

New HOward Prefix Opened by Phone Co.

Installation of new telephone equipment at the newly-expanded Grossmont Hospital has forced the opening of a new "prefix," Dick Rose, manager of the local phone company office, said this week.

The hospital has the first number in the new exchange: HOward 5-0711.

When the telephone company's new addition in La Mesa is completed, Rose said, other HOward numbers will be assigned.

Rose said that in the past 10 years, the number of telephones in this area has increased almost 500 per cent. On January 1, 1950, he said, there were 7,868 telephones in the HOpkins exchange. On the same date this year, the number had jumped to 38,036.

The new telephone building addition will cost $500,000, Rose said. It is expected to be completed this month. After completion, the "cross-bar" facilities for the phone company will be installed. This is expected to be completed in the fall.

Between now and next fall, Rose said, Grossmont Hospital will be the only HOward number in operation. The former number for the hospital, HOpkins 9-6111, will remain on a special intercepting trunk line indefinitely, making sure that no emergency call to the hospital will be lost because of the number change.

No Fist Fights, Please

Modern Poetry Class Stimulates Free-Swinging Discussions

By Don Wilson

Recorded history shows no fist fights in any university extension class taught by Mrs. Frances Bardacke of Lemon Grove, but there is plenty of freedom of expression otherwise.

Mrs. Bardacke, born of a long-line American father and a French-speaking mother in Belgium, has just launched another of her classes under the auspices of the University of California. She teaches—no, referees would be a better word—her classes in the charming and informal studio at her home.

And lest I give you the wrong impression about the classes, they're all attended by ladies and gentlemen with a flair for culture, a burning desire for information, and a voice loud enough to get an individual's opinion across to others. Well, actually, the classes really are discussions, moderated and guided by Mrs. Bardacke, who is a "published" poet herself.

This latest one (You still can enroll if you hurry) is called "Understanding Modern Poetry" and carries the designation of Course No. 869. Mrs. Bardacke's phone number is HO 9-6706 and she lives at 3747 Citrus St., Lemon Grove—just north of the freeway.

There is, of course a Mr. Bardacke — Ted to everyone. He was born in Canada of Russian parents and holds several master's degrees and a doctorate, all of which help keep him in his position as teacher of English and of Russian at San Diego Junior College.

There's son Paul, who is earning quite a reputation locally as a public speaker. And son F. J., who is a freshman at Harvard. There's a lot more that is fascinating about this family, and bits of it rub off on you as you attend one of Mrs. Bardacke's classes.

Husband Ted likes to drop in during classes (from 7:30 to 9:30 Tuesday nights) and toss in opinions on poetry. Most of these impromptu opinions differ from whatever opinion happens to be most prevalent in the discussion then under way.

In the "Discovering Modern Poetry" class just getting started, Mrs. Bardacke says, the students will discuss the techniques, style and poetic forms of such widely divergent yet similar poets as T. S. Eliot and Robert Frost. They'll talk about the life and works of Ezra Pound, W. H. Auden and other poets that the class decides to talk about.

These class sessions are stimulating, they're lots of fun, and above all, they're educational.

If you can squeeze a few Tuesday night hours out of your busy schedule, I'd recommend that you enroll in Mrs. Bardacke's class and exchange opinions with the other students.

But remember: no fist fights.

Kiwanis Clubs Take Top Freedoms Foundation Award

Kiwanis International has won a top award (The George Washington Medal in the Americana competition) again this year from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge.

The award was given for Kiwanis' "eleven point program on individual citizenship responsibility headlined by the organization's 1959 theme 'Build Individual Responsibility'." It came to Kiwanis recently at special ceremonies conducted at the Freedoms Foundation headquarters in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, according to Dr. Thayer Crow, president of the Kiwanis Club of Lemon Grove. In addition, he said, Kiwanis received the Distinguished Service Award for having received at least nine awards in the eleven annual competitions sponsored by the Freedoms Foundation. The award was accepted for Kiwanis by Albert J. Tully of Mobile, Alabama, President of Kiwanis International.

Key Club International, which is a high school boys' service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International, was also honored by the Freedoms Foundation. Key Club received a George Washington Honor Medal Award for "a seven point youth program to cultivate creative citizenship."

According to Dr. Crow, "The Freedoms Foundation Award has long enjoyed the same stature in the community service field as the 'Oscar' enjoys in the motion picture field and the 'Emmy' in the television field."

The Kiwanis International award came to the organization because of its overall program of community service work carried on by nearly 258,000 members in 4700 clubs. The work covered the fields of Agriculture and Conservation, Boys and Girls Work, Public and Business Affairs, Support of Churches in Their Spiritual Aims and Vocational Guidance.

The Mt. Miguel Boosters Club will sponsor a dinner for boys who have participated in wrestling and basketball this past year. The dinner will be part of an annual banquet, set for March 25.

High School Slates Comedy this Weekend

Mount Miguel high school's drama department will present "The Patsy" by Barry Conners in the school cafetorium this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

A family situation comedy laid in the 1920's, the plot revolves around Patricia, played by Bea Weeks who recently won the Best Actress Award in the one-act play contest. The youngest girl in the family, Patricia is taken advantage of by members of her family—with the exception of her hen-pecked father, who sympathizes with her. When the father, played by Steve Tamila, succeeds in making the rest of the family realize their mistake, Patricia is no longer "the patsy."

Joan Hoffman takes the mother's role and Mary Lou Bell plays the part of Grace, the older sister.

Robert Sanders, speech and drama coach at Miguel, said that "This play is very rich in character development and is performed by a very fine high school cast."

Performances will be staged at 7 p.m. on March 17, but at 8 p.m. on March 18-19. Tickets are 50 cents with an ASB card and 75 cents without one for students. Adult tickets are 75 cents and may be obtained in the bookkeeper's office at Mount Miguel or from any member of the play cast.

This event is under the able direction of Bud Walker, Santee, chairman of the Judging Day committee.

Matador Baseball Team Launches Highly-Successful Diamond Season

The Mt. Miguel high school varsity baseball team turned in two fine efforts last week on the home field, as Matador pitcher Rich Whisman hurled a fine no-hitter against the Clairemont Chieftains, Tuesday, and the Matadors blanked the visitors 7-0, in the non-league skirmish.

Friday afternoon the Miguel baseballers opened up their Metro League campaign with a 2-1 victory over the Sweetwater Red Devils.

Miguel picked up 7 runs on 10 hits, and committed 2 errors.

The Chieftains had goose eggs in the box score, except for 1 miscue.

Bill Lefler was the winning chucker in Friday afternoon's game, the Devils getting their one run on only 2 hits, while playing errorless ball.

The Matadors picked up their 2 runs in the first inning, and collected 3 hits, and were charged with 2 errors.

Chuck Campanella, a sophomore catcher, completed the battery in both games.

Mt. Miguel was slated to go against first year Hilltop High Tuesday afternoon at Hilltop, with Bill Thornton scheduled to handle the pitching chores.

Crawford will visit the Matadors this Thursday, in a non-league tilt on the Spring Valley diamond. Sophomore pitcher Ron Scagliotti was picked to start on the mound for the Matadors.

Friday afternoon, the Matadors play host to the El Cajon Braves, in Metro League action beginning at 3 p.m. Whisman is tabbed to start on the hill against the visiting Braves.

BULLETIN

Mt. Miguel beat Hilltop Tuesday afternoon 8-1 with 8 hits for the Matadors and 4 for Hilltop. Miguel used pitchers Thornton and Smith and catcher Campanella. Hilltop sent Lee and Campbell to the mound, with Viletnikoff and Scott behind the plate.

Long Beach Nips Helix Basketball Championship Bid

By Bill Ott Jr.

Long Beach Poly's Jackrabbit basketball team ended Helix High's bid for the S.C.I.F. Triple A Basketball Championship campaign by nipping the Highlanders 50-48 last Tuesday night in the Long Beach City College gym.

The loss stopped Jim Bowers' chance to surpass Tom Shaule's season scoring record of 724 points. Bowers canned 19 for the Highlanders, and finished the season with a fine 638 point tally.

Helix' cold shooting from outside told the story of the game, as the Jackrabbits tightened their defense to contain Clayton Raaka, and Bowers.

Raaka, usually one of the Scot's leading scorers, was held to 8 points, as the Rabbits placed two defensive men to cover the 6'5" forward.

Helix jumped off to a fast 18-13 first quarter lead, but a 3 point second quarter put the Poly five out in front at the halftime intermission 23-21.

In the third quarter, the Highlanders once again led with a narrow 29-28 margin, but in this period of play the lead changed 6 different times, and the Highlanders began to lose control of the boards, then the Poly crew went out in front to stay.

Helix with 30 seconds remaining in the game closed the gap to 49-48, but the Jackrabbits went into a stall and picked up one of three charity tosses for a final 50-48 tally.

Tom Sisk was the leading scorer for the evening with 24 points for the winners, while Bowers' 19 and Bob Mackey's 11 were tops for the Scots.

If the Highlanders had won, and entered the semi-finals, Bowers would have had two games in which to try to surpass Shaule's record.

Score by quarters:

Helix	18	3	13	14	—48
Long Beach	13	10	15	12	—50

Helix Dumps Miguel On Cinder Path

Helix High's track team dumped the Mt. Miguel Matador team 56½-47½ in Metro loop competition Friday afternoon on the winner's oval.

The Highlanders claimed 7 first places, and held the Matadors to 5 in the duel meet.

Mt. Miguel's Bees stomped the Highlander Bees 66-29, and the Matador Cees followed with a 52-25 effort against the Helix representatives.

Kiwanis Pancake Event Tops $1,000

An unidentified boy ate 30 pancakes in three hours at the Kiwanis Club Pancake Festival last week and the rest of the patrons didn't do so bad either, according to Ken Conrad, Pancake Festival publicity chairman.

He said a record 1,800 persons consumed more than 300 pounds of Aunt Jemima pancake flour (it was contributed to the project).

Proceeds from the event estimated to exceed $1,000, will be used to pay for uniforms for the junior high school band.

The winners of the contest among junior high studets for the youngsters selling the most dinner tickets will be announced later this week, Conrad said.

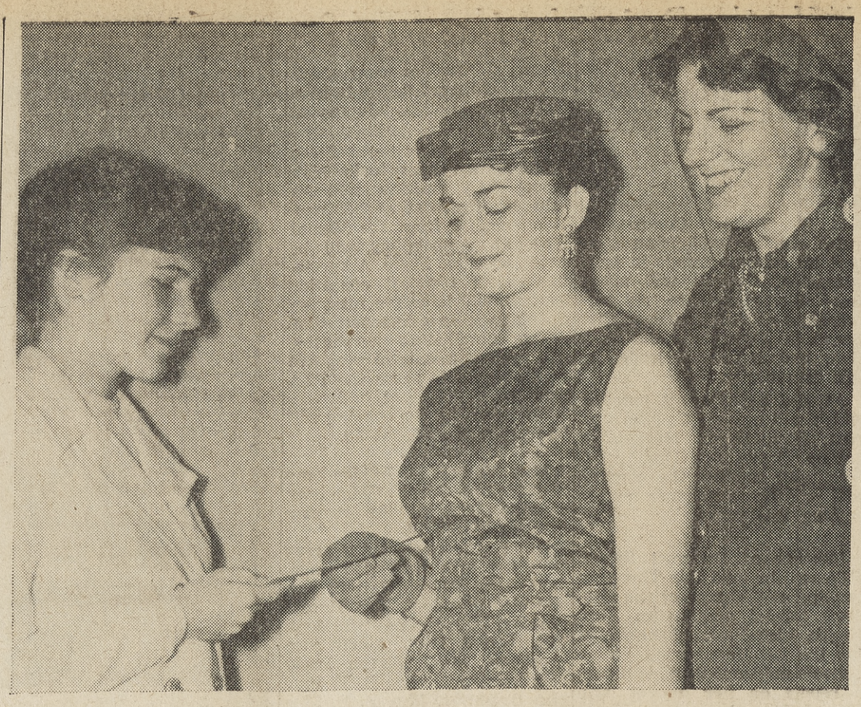
FAITH

Faith brings joy. A persons who has been carrying the weight of his sins and guilt becomes happy when he finds the place where he can set the burden down and not take it up again. Joy fills his heart when he is made a free man in Christ

Lemon Grove Lutheran Church Message



ART AWARD — Mrs. Don Allen presents a check on March 11 for $25 to Christina Bowne, a senior at Mt. Miguel high school, as an art scholarship from the Lemon Grove Junior Woman's Club to further her education in art. Miss Bowne's water color painting named "Historical Wash Rendering" depicted Betsy Ross making the flag chosen by the Juniors and entered in the National Hallmark Art Contest at the Juniors District Conference in La Jolla on January 9. Miss Bowne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowne of 2430 Central, Spring Valley, and her father is a professor of Art at San Diego State College. Mrs. George Teigen, right, president of the Lemon Grove Junior Woman's Club is looking on.

Grove Schools Bands Win High Honors

Top honors went to Lemon Grove's school band and orchestra at the Hoover High Music Festival when "superior" ratings were given these two groups. The 55 member orchestra and the 75 member band played before judges on March 5 for the 17th annual Instrumental Music Festival.

Lemon Grove's music students in competition Class D include pupils from the fifth through the eighth grade. Other Class D groups include only seventh, eighth, and ninth graders. Classes A, B, and C are high school pupils only.

"A most enjoyable performance," stated Dr. John E. Green, a judge from Long Beach State oCllege. "It is obvious that close attention is given to many details in this preparation." These comments concerned the orchestra.

Another judge, Clinton Sawin of Newport Beach High, rated the band straight "A" for superior. "This is much better than could be expected of a class D band," he said. "This band is most certainly a credit to the teacher and the school. It is the type of music education to which one can point with pride."

Other judges included Ralph Rush, University of Southern California; Millard Briggs, San Diego State College; and George W. Burt, Fullerton High School.

Harry Weisgerber, director of instrumental music at Lemon Grove, stated this week that he is proud of his organizations and of the support the community and parents are giving to the music department.

Carolyn Brady Zone Finalist In Speech Fest

Miss Carolyn Brady of Spring Valley will represent the Spring Valley Lions Club this Thursday at a public speaking contest at the El Cajon Masonic lodge.

She was chosen over two other contestants in an area "speak off" on March 3.

The Spring Valley Lions Club and their ladies entertained the three student speakers and their parents at the area meeting. They included Dudley Griffen and his father, Harry, of Lemon Grove; Don Barlow and his mother, Ann, of Spring Valley, and Miss Brady and her mother, Verna, of Spring Valley.

Judges who selected Miss Brady as the zone contestant were E. F. Kotnik of the Lions Club, Prof. John Breedlove of San Diego State College, and Dr. Russell Love of Casa de Oro.

Presbyterians Plan Fellowship Evening

La Mesa United Presbyterian Church will hold regular services at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday. The Rev. Kenneth E. Grant, pastor, will bring the message.

A Women's Bible Class continues to meet each Friday morning at 10 in the Fireside Room. This class is not only for members of the church, but for any interested woman in this community.

The Junior High group is planning an evening of fellowship and games at the church on Friday at 7:30 p.m.. Decorations and refreshments are being planned by Cindy Bashinski, Cheryl Lindsey and Diane McDaniel. Nancy Stout is handling invitations. All Junior Highs are invited. Games are being planned by Ronald Runyan, Bob Hobson and Diane McDaniel. Twenty-two Junior Highs are preparing to unite with the church on Palm Sunday. The Rev. Eugene Elsdon, minister of Christian education, leads these young people in their study.

WHAT'S DOING

Telephone men wearing headsets aren't too unusual a sight in our business. This man, for instance, makes final checks on newly installed phones to make sure they're ready to use. Also, from his special test desk he traces out trouble reports so repair men can get right on the job. You may never have occasion to see a deskman at work. But remember he's always ready to track down any sign of trouble on your line and help keep your telephone a service you can count on.

The last place you might expect to find coal is in your telephone. But it's there, all right. In each telephone mouthpiece there are tiny coal granules that change voice waves into waves of electric current. Phone people are very particular about this coal — they get a special, handpicked anthracite from Pennsylvania. First, it's crushed, ground, sifted and sorted. Next, it's washed, rinsed, dried, tested for cleanliness and roasted 24 hours at temperatures up to 2048° F. Then it's cooled, tested again, and stored for six months before it's used. Sound complicated? Yes! But it's just one of the ways we work to make your telephone more dependable — more valuable to you.*

Ever wonder how much equipment you activate when you pick up your telephone to make a call either locally or long distance?

Ever wonder why your telephone continues to operate when all your lights go out during a storm?

A guided tour through our local equipment buildings can answer these questions and many more. A tour through our 37th Street building adds our operators to the "things to see" list.

Call our Business Office HOpkins 6-3201 and we'll be glad to make arrangements for one of these interesting and illuminating tours.

Auto Radio Firm Gets New Home

George Scott, operator of the Broadway Auto Radio and Television shop at 7316 Broadway, will move to new, larger quarters early next month.

He has taken a lease on the property at 7396 Broadway which was formerly occupied by Cole's Cabinet shop.

Rotary Conference to be In San Diego This Week

Thirty Rotarians from Lemon Grove plan to attend the sixth annual Conference of Rotary International, District 534, Friday and Saturday in San Diego, Rolla Hamilton, president of the local club, said.

Those planning to go to the conference include Arvid Johnson, president elect; Wayne Hoy, vice president; Rod Grabanski, secretary; Al Drew, treasurer, and Hamilton. Representatives from the other 44 Rotary Clubs, totaling 2,800 members, in San Diego, Imperial, Riverside and part of San Bernardino counties, which constitute the district, also will attend.

The conference is held annually, President Hamilton said, to review Rotary service activities and plan for increasing their effectiveness during the coming year.

Principal speakers will be William R. Robbins, Miami, Florida, first vice president and personal representative of Rotary International President Harold T. Thomas, Auckland, New Zealand; Paul G. Hoffman, New York, managing director of the United States special fund; Dr. Robert A. Nisbet, dean, college of letters and science, University of California at Riverside; Thomas G. Lanphier Jr., San Diego, who resigned March 15 as vice president of the Convair division of General Dynamics Corporation to continue his crusade against the administration's defense policies.

A pre-conference highlight will be a golf tournament March 17, said B. M. Christiansen, Carlsbad Rotary Club president and conference chairman. Other conference features include special entertainment for wives of Rotarians, arranged by Mrs. Christiansen. Conference co-chairman is Nelson Fuller, Pacific Beach, president of the San Diego County Council of Rotary Clubs, hosts for the conference. They are making elaborate plans to welcome Rotarians and their guests to San Diego.

Chamber Named To Independent Business Board

Miss Helen T. Moulton, manager of the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce, has been appointed chairman of the Lemon Grove chapter of the National Federation of Independent Business.

Membership permits the local chamber to vote each month on bills and issues affecting independent business enterprise and the opinions are tabulated and the results are distributed to members.

The tabulation is also sent to the desk of U.S. Congressman Bob Wilson of San Diego making it possible for him to know the personal opinions of his independent business constituents in an organized manner.

Business and professional men are urged to contact Miss Moulton so that their opinions may be added to the report she will submit, and in turn reach the legislative level of government.
